We acknowledge the importance of attendance within academics. Though, we also believe there are learning experiences in travel and extracurricular activities, which greatly benefit today's youth.

This individual will be traveling to Orlando, Florida for "The D2 Summit."

Travel dates will include May 4th extending to May 8th.

This is a prestigious cheerleading event, consisting of participants from all over the country. There are a small number of athletes given the opportunity to experience participating in a competition of this stature. We are grateful to share in this achievement with our athletes and appreciate your support in this matter.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Ashley Sabo & Christopher Cote
